THE NAMES OF OUR NEW LIEUTENANT GOVERNORS.

The Monopoly Question to be Considered To-Morrow—VanHorne Says It is Not So-Etc.

OTTAWA, April 18.—A cabinet minister is the authority for the intimation that Senator Schultz is to receive the appointment of Lieutenant Governor of Manitoba, and that Mr. Royal is to go to the Territories as Lieutenant Governor. Laird will retire from the provincial house and contest Provancher.

An order-in-council on the monopoly question has been passed and the Government have called a caucus for tomorrow to discuss the question.

Manager VanHorne denies the report from San Francisco referring to an alliance between the Canadian Pacific and Sprockell's sugar refinery.

The Minister of Justice gives notice by resolution of an increase in judge's salaries of $1,000 a year; Also that the five puisne judges of the supreme court of the Northwest shall receive $5,000 a year each.

Mr. Davis, the member from Alberta, is urging the Government to throw the land formerly held under lease open for settlement.

OTTAWA, April 14.—The object of Messrs. Mowat and Ross, who are now on a visit here, is to confer with their party leaders and effect an arrangement for a more vigorous policy. It is recognized that federal Grits are in a bad shape. It is reported that the Ontario legislature will be dissolved in 1890 and that a new election will be held under the manhood suffrage qualification, and that Ross will assume the lead. Mowat and Fraser will obtain seats in the Commons.

At a ministerial caucus held yesterday morning to discuss the agreement with the Canadian Pacific the utmost good feeling prevailed. In answer to Sir Donald Smith, Sir John Macdonald said that negotiations had commenced for the abolition of monopoly before Mr. Greenway's arrival here, and that Greenway's presence did not alter in any way the course of the negotiations. The credit was due to the Manitoba and Northwest members, who had persistently urged the abolition of monopoly. The following allotments for expenditure has been agreed upon: Five millions dollars to pay off the floating liabilities of the company, five and a half millions for increasing the railway stock, and the balance to be employed improving the character of the road and promoting its efficiency.

Proceedings were dull in the house to-day, the fishery treaty occupying the whole session. The speakers were Jones, Keay, Lauder, Mitchell and Foster. The debate was adjourned till Monday.

Judge Henry of the Supreme Court was attacked with apoplexy yesterday and is now in an unconscious condition.

Parliament will be prorogued about May 18th.

OTTAWA, April 12.—The House occupied the day discussing Laurier's motion censuring the Speaker for dismissing the three French translators. Sir John Macdonald moved an amendment that the speaker had acted within the scope of his power. The Premier's amendment was carried by a vote of 113 to 60.

OTTAWA, April 14.—Monopoly resolutions come up on Thursday next.

Back Again.

MONTREAL April 17.—Gabriel Dumont arrived in this city today and said he has amnesty from the Government in his pocket and will deliver lectures throughout the province and will seek signatures for a petition praying the Government to extend indemnity to the Half-breeds who took up arms under Riel. He says Riel is dead. Dumont will return to his farm in the Northwest after visiting France. Hundreds of people called on him.

Recovering.

NEW YORK, April 12.—Senator Conkling is much improved.

HELENA, Montana, April 12.—The Koetemey Indians are getting ugly and threaten to avenge the hanging of three of their number for the murder of white people. Governor Leslie has been called on for troops to protect the settlers in Missoula county, north of Flathead Lake.

Banqueted.

LONDON, April 12.—The South-of-England Lacrosse Association banqueted the Toronto lacrosse team last evening. Hon. J. Beverly Robinson, ex-lieutenant Governor of Ontario was present.

No Trace.

CHICAGO, April 12.—Detective Aldrich says no trace of Tascott, the murderer of banker Snell, can be found, although detectives have hunted everywhere.

Cable Tenders Asked for.

LONDON, April 12.—The Imperial post office to-day invited tenders for laying, maintaining and working a cable between Halifax and Bermuda.

Political Considerations Prevail.

BERLIN, April 12.—The Post says all ear that Bismarck will resign is ended. The betrothal of Victoria to Alexander is abandoned.

Never Before Equalled.

TORONTO, April 13.—The Globe's London cable says that 2,000 immigrants sailed for Canada yesterday. The number has never before been equalled in any one day in the history of immigration to the Dominion. The bulk of the immigrants are good Britons.

Flood Predicted.

MONTREAL, April 13.—The river is rising steadily, and it is expected the ice will break up in a few days. Those who have made the subject a study say that Montreal is in for another flood.

MONTREAL, April 12.—Five hundred immigrants passed through here to-day or the Northwest.

MONTREAL, April 12.—A sensation has been caused in high social circles by the elopement of a daughter of Senator Thibaudeau, the millionaire, with ex-police-man Turbul. Detectives are in pursuit.

Commented On.

LONDON, April 14.—Much comment has been raised over the words used by the Emperor Frederick when he decorated Dr. Mackenzie. His expression "in remembrance of my accession to the throne" may mean he was grateful to the English doctor for saving his life or because he prevented a decision being arrived at that his disease was incurable and thus prevented a regency.

A "Copperhead's" Reward.

LONDON, April 14.—Minister Phelps, it is said by Henry Labouchere, returns from America on June 21st, and he will then present his letters of recall, as he is to be appointed chief justice of the United States supreme court.

FARGO, Dakota, April 14.—Red River at this place and at Breckenridge is rising. The people fear a flood.

OTTAWA, April 18.—Laurier presented a petition today from one hundred and sixty inhabitants of Batoche, Grandin, and other places in the district of Saskatchewan representing that their rights and privileges accorded the half breeds of Manitoba under privileges of the Manitoba act. Such as issue of may privileges and squatters rights have been refused to a large number of residents in the places mentioned that considerable loss has been incurred in their efforts to obtain these rights and it was an act of justice due to the petitioners that these rights be conferred upon them and further that each child born since eighteen seventy be granted two hundred and forty acres of land, the same as those born previous to 1870. That the losses occasioned by the rebellion have not been paid in a just and equitable manner by the Commission appointed for the purpose and that petitioners pray that the parliament takes steps to remove these causes of complaint.

The Westminster city incorporation bill was referred to a select committee. Should it report favorably the bill will doubtless be taken as read, as at this late stage of the session it is not likely that the house will care to go through its some 250 clauses.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 12.—Yesterday's Capital says: "Mr. Blaine has engaged his steamer passage for the United States and will sail on June 16th. The Convention at Chicago will meet on June 19th, and will nominate Mr. Blaine, who will at that time be about midway across the Atlantic. BROUGHT BACK.

BILLY CAMERON THE WINNIPEG BANK CASHIER CAUGHT.

Dan Diamond and Several Well-Known Winnipeggers Said to be Implicated.

WINNIPEG, April 16.—Billy Cameron, teller of the Union Bank, who absconded Friday night, with over thirty thousand dollars of the bank's funds was arrested in Peiointa, on Saturday, but only four hundred dollars was found on him. Dan Diamond is said to be an accomplice was arrested in Emerson, yesterday. Other well-known Winnipeggers are said to be implicated in the affair and more arrests are expected shortly.

WINNIPEG, April 18.—Harry McKittrick and George Valie, hotel keepers who were arrested in connection with the Cameron Bank robbery, were remanded till Friday. Bail has been refused and the money was discovered in an old beer barrel in the McKittrick cellar.

WINNIPEG, April 18, 12 p.m.—Cameron, absconding bank teller told a HERALD reporter that McKittrick and Valie were to get five thousand each and himself the balance of the money stolen.

The Winnipeg Sun says that a well-known ex-banker said to-day that it was the easiest thing in the world for a rascally teller in a bank to decry the manager and make away with the funds. Mr. Balfour, he said, was a strict and exceedingly shrewd manager, and if anyone could have detected young Cameron, Mr. Balfour was the man. At every street corner business men are talking Cameron and the bank's steal. It is characterized as a face-faced affair, and those who knew of the young rascal's movements are surprised for not making the facts known to the authorities. Doubtless these parties knowing Cameron's reputation as a blow, had thought that he was "talking with his mouth," as the small boys say. It was currently reported that Cameron had a girl with him when last seen going out of the city. The police contradict this story and say there is no foundation for it, excepting that he was seen trudging the streets with a lady on the evening before his departure.

GOLD MINING REVIVED.

There are many people living about Calgary who remember the tremendous excitement which was created over a quarter of a century ago by the discovery of an immensely rich pocket of gold, in what was known as the Richardson mine, near Madoc, north of Belleville, Ont. The pocket soon played out, as no connection could be found between this pocket and any paying vein, numerous companies were formed and shafts sunk in many places, amongst which were the Williams mine, owned by Dr. John D. Williams, now of Morrisburg, and the Gatling mine, owned by professor Gatling, of Richmond Va., and brother of Col. Gatling, inventor of the Gatling gun, considerable rich ore was got in these and other shafts. A good deal of gold was sent to Philadelphia, and returned to Canada in $20 coins. Though the quartz was rich it was what is termed refractory ore, being very strongly impregnated with arsenic and iron, making it very difficult to treat, and indeed dangerous with the appliances and knowledge available at that time. This, together with the excitement of the American war which took precedence of all other exciting this, caused the mines to be neglected, but since the C. P. R. was built from Toronto to Ottawa, passing through the north part of the county of Hastings, the country has developed a great deal. A new interest has sprung up, new companies formed or old ones revived for the purpose of making the gold come out and be separate from its baser and poisonous bedfellow. We remember, when reporting on these mines seeing the grass and trees killed by arsenic thrown off by the heat when smelting the ore, for several rods around the furnaces, a good many cattle were killed by venturing too near and eating the poisoned grass. It is claimed that a new process has been discovered by which the least particle of gold can be separated from the rock and iron, and the arsenic rendered almost harmless. If this proves true there are doubtless trillions of dollars buried in north Hastings, which would seem in a fair way of being brought out now. It appears that a connection has been traced from the old Richardson mine pocket (which was evidently the result of a volcanic freak) and the lead from which it came. The secret of this connection was claimed to be known to one man years ago, but he could not or would not work it nor tell any one else about it if he really did know. If the new find turns out right the Government should start a mint at Belleville.

Sheep on the Farm.

At a convention of Iowa stockmen the following remarks were made on the value of sheep on the farm: The farmers of Iowa should seriously consider what kind of stock can best utilize the crops of their farms as food and convert them at the least expense into other products that will find a ready market and profitable return. I would say to the farmer who carries on stock-raising, keep the sheep. Its well-known hardiness, its freedom from fatal disease, its remarkable assimilative power by which the coarsest foods of the farm with small grain rations added are really converted into one of the most healthful and nutritious meats, and at the same time grows any kind of wool the market demands—are characteristics of this animal which stand proverbial. The coarse foods, weeds and briars which the sheep so readily devour form one of the important factors in the economy of sheep raising. They seem to relish and require a great variety of them and much of their food is what other animals would neglect. Further, it requires no machinery to thresh their oats, shell or grind their corn, and no hogs to follow them. They can be sheltered more cheaply than disbursed cattle. As a fertilizer their droppings are very rich, for they contain about 90 per cent. of plant food.

A Perfect Understanding.

"Yes, I remembered that little bill I owe you—remember it perfectly well, and, in fact, though of it just as soon as I got to town" said a man in reply to some one who had dunned him. "Let me see. Where will you be at 4 o'clock this afternoon—at 4 sharp?" "At the hotel." "All right, at the hotel at 4 sharp." "Collins," said an acquaintance, "you are a very plausible fellow." You know that you do not intend to pay that fellow?" "Well, no, that's a fact." "Then why did you want to know where he would be at 4 o'clock?" "So I could time myself accordingly. If I know where he is at 4 o'clock, I will be somewhere else at that time. In this life, my dear boy, to have a perfect understanding is to avoid many embarrassing situations.—[Arkansas Traveller.]

The recent find near the village of Smithville, south east of Hamilton is still causing considerable talk in the latter place, some doubt is thrown on the genuineness of the coal business from the fact that some of the coal exhibited as coming from this seam was anthracite and some of it soft coal. Geologists say these two kinds of coal are never found together. The owner claims he has a seam eight inches thick.

Gladstone says: "We can do nothing in the Parliament; he is reported to have said. "Our duty is to force a dissolution as soon as we can." This is regarded by the Conservatives as practically throwing up the sponge.

The Government stole a march on its enemies at the close of a holiday week, when the attendance was thin and uncertain. Labouchere was caught napping. The Liberal whips, seeing so few of their men present, tried to get a count out, but the Ministry knew when they had a good thing and made the most of it. About thirty heavy money votes have been obtained in two nights, an almost unprecedented occurrence in recent years. So much for holiday making.

In tearing down the old Fort Garry buildings it is seen that each beam and post is numbered. The material, which is solid oak, was put together in the Old Country, shipped out here via the Hudson's Bay in sections, and erected here. The timbers are as sound as the day they were cut, and the purchasers will doubtless make a good thing of their investments.

Question

What is going to make Calgary become a great city?

Answer

1. ST. Its geographical position on the Canadian Pacific Railway and midway between WINNIPEG AND VANCOUVER.

2. The vast Mineral Wealth, consisting of Gold, Copper, Lead, Iron in the Rock Mountains to the west of Calgary, coupled with an unlimited supply of ANTHRACITE AND BITUMINOUS COAL which is found all through Alberta, and is already being shipped in large quantities to San Francisco, which minerals and coal will make Calgary the smelting and manufacturing

CITY OF CANADA.

3. THE FINE WATER POWER which can be obtained from the two rivers that flow through the town.

4. Millions of acres of the most fertile land in the world have been set apart by the Canadian Government for FREE HOMES. This land has been proved capable of producing very large crops of grain and vegetables, in great variety, and of the finest quality, without irrigation. Through these lands flow innumerable streams of the purest water, thus making Alberta a farming country second to none in the world, of which Calgary is now and will continue to be the capital and COMMERCIAL CENTRE.

5. The CLIMATE is unequalled for its temperate and healthy character in the whole North West, being entirely free from severe storms, cyclones, blizzards and tornadoes, and is as much superior to the climate of Minnesota, Dakota and Manitoba as they are to Iceland.

6. The fact that horses, cattle and sheep feed and fatten on the prairies the year round, the two latter when taken off the grass in February and March are equal to eastern stall fed animals.

7. The inimitable supply of Fine Cedar, Spruce and other valuable woods of the Eastern States, on the main line of Railway and banks of the rivers, to the west, which is floated in logs or brought in lumber by rail to Calgary and sold at low prices.

8. The magnificent site of the town of Calgary, in a beautiful valley five miles long and two miles wide, with two crystal rivers 150 and 300 feet wide, flowing through the valley and surrounded by fine sloping hills on which to build private residences. In the distance looms up in stately grandeur the peerless Rocky Mountains, and in the Bow River are numerous islands granted by the government to make Parks for this Gem City of the West

The town, now only four years old, has a population of 3,000. In it are solid business blocks built of native free stone. There are also churches, schools, hotels, in every way first class for the age of the place. There are two daily newspapers, and the town is lighted with electricity. In fact it possesses all the evidence of steady growth and increasing wealth.

To those who wish to make investments in Real Estate in Calgary I am prepared to sell over 1,000 of the best located lots in town at prices ranging from $30 to $1,500 each. Possessing an intimate knowledge of the growth of the Northwestern States and Territories, I came to Calgary almost at the first and being convinced of its future greatness, at once made investments. COST OF MONOPOLY RELEASE.
A Fair Proposition for the Country to Accept.

The following from the Toronto Empire is believed to be the final terms agreed upon between the Government and C. P. R. Should it prove to be correct, the country may well congratulate itself on an arrangement far better than the most sanguine could have hoped for.

The basis of settlement, as near as it can be ascertained—for no official intimation is as yet forthcoming—is a Government guarantee of land grant bonds bearing interest at 3 or 3½ per cent, and involving an annual charge of about half a million dollars. As a protection for giving this guarantee the Government is to have the whole of the unsold portion of the C. P. R. lands, which, writing from memory, amount to about thirteen million acres. The original land grant, it will be remembered, was 25 million acres, but this quantity has been reduced by sales to settlers and land companies, and the return of more than six million acres at a valuation of a dollar and a half an acre towards the extinguishment of the loan of 1884. A few years ago Mr. Blake valued the lands granted the company at two dollars and a half an acre, but when it is pointed out that the C. P. R. is prepared to place its remaining lands in the hands of the Government at a valuation of a dollar and eight cents an acre, the Reformers surely cannot grumble at the price now put upon the lands. As a basis then of the security to the Government there will be these thirteen million acres. The lands are to be administered by a trust and the proceeds of the sales will go towards the liquidation of the bond issue. It is stated also that the company will be responsible for the interest on the bonds which will become a charge on its surplus earnings in the event of the receipts from land sales proving inadequate. But there will be no mortgage on the railway proper. It is further stated that the postal receipts of the company and receipts from the transport of militia, public officials, stores for the Indian and Militia departments will also be pledged to the Government as security for interest on the bond issue and protection of the guarantee. The surrender by the C. P. R. of its monopoly privileges conditional upon Canada loaning the credit of the country to the company for a term of years, cannot but be acceptable to all classes of our people, since no risks are involved, and no money payment or bonus required. In fact when the scheme as outlined above is generally known throughout the country, the people will be astonished at the splendid bargain the Government is making. When the Financial News the other day intimated that the monopoly clause would be bought out on the lines mentioned above, the Toronto Globe made the significant admission that such an arrangement would cost the country nothing if ample security were taken. The security has been obtained.

Winter Wheat.

We have been shown a sample of winter wheat grown last year on the John Glen farm by Mr. Slattery, the present occupant. Considering the very unfavorable season the sample is pretty good, though it would not weigh as much as the best spring wheat grown here. There are two things which may operate against winter wheat in this district, first the general dryness of the season which might prevent the wheat from coming up the ground in the fall and secondly, the possible danger to the wheat from want of snow to cover it in the winter. But against these possible disadvantages we have the fact that the ground never heaves with the frost, however, thorough testing is the way to settle the matter, just as it has been settled in favor of spring wheat.

Canadian Securities.

A London report states that provincial and municipal stocks are selling well. A Quebec city loan was offered the other day at 107 as the issue price. In three hours offers were made for three times the amount wanted. A former Quebec city loan issued at 102 is now selling at 109. The report further says that all reasonably good Canadian municipal securities yielding 4 per cent are literally hunted for by British investors. The tendency of the English market is to regard Montreal and Toronto city issues as being quite as good as those of Birmingham and other English cities of that rank. Lower Province securities are also looming up. The fact is, new light is gradually breaking in on these Englishmen's eyes. They are beginning to learn that Canadian securities rest on a more solid basis than those of the rotten Turkish and Egyptian concerns which has heretofore swallowed up so much English money.

Women Journalists.

Women journalists are numbered by scores in every large city, and few influential papers in the country are without one or more women on the staff. Yet even in Boston the profession is not old enough to have lost its novelty. Therefore, it is not to be wondered at that those of the sterner sex who were privileged to attend the recent meeting of the New England Woman's Press Association looked with a curious interest at the personnel of their entertainers. Bright looking women with keen and fine faces they were. One thing was specially noticeable, the large number of married women actively engaged in journalistic work—nor does it at all seem to follow as a matter of course that their husbands belong to the same profession.

Great Fall in Furs.

In last week's issue we reported the results of these sales to the time of going to press. We have since been informed that the fall in prices, which applied to nearly all the important articles imported by the Company, has been greater than anticipated. Marten (Hudson Bayable) has this year touched the lowest price on record. That article declined 25 per cent., and mink declined 20 per cent.; wolf 60 per cent.; wolverine, 30 per cent.; and bear, 25 per cent. A small quantity of brown bear and musk ox alone brought better prices than those of last year.—Canadian Gazette.

New Westminster is to become a royal city in more than name, if the scheme for connecting that place with California by a new route is carried into execution. The construction of the Westminster Southern line to a junction with the Seattle & West Coast road, on the international border, will give convenient access to the whole Pacific coast railway system, and in conjunction with the other advantages now possessed will greatly promote the growth and prosperity of New Westminster. The junction with the Seattle line, it is expected, will be made by the beginning of next January.

CUMMINGS' AMENDMENT

TO THE INTERSTATE COMMERCE BILL

Is Now Under Discussion At Washington. Will It Carry?

Mr. Conkling Recovering.

NEW YORK, April 17.—At 10 p. m., to night Mr. Conkling's condition indicated a decided improvement. There had been during the afternoon symptoms of a secondary stage of meningitis, which Dr. Barker admitted look a little bad, but he thought it likely that the patient would be all right tomorrow and would be convalescent, which means recovery.

Strike of Bakers.

CHICAGO, April 17.—The 1200 union bakers of Chicago have decided to strike and probably tomorrow morning the men will all quit. The cause is that the bakers a few months ago signed an agreement with their workmen as to the wages and hours of labor, agreeing also to recognize their union. Recently the bakers met and resolved to have nothing further to do with the union and began to hire non-union men. The men then prepared a contract similar to the old one and presented it to the bakers for their signatures but the latter refused to sign it.

An Atrocious Crime.

GOVERNS. KY., April 16.—John and Henry Hill and Mary Smith, who deserve to rank as the "Benders" of Kentucky, are in jail at Jamestown, near here, charged with one of the most atrocious crimes in the history of the state. Two weeks ago two peddlers came to Somerset. Next day they disappeared. Four days after this hogs were seen in the woods near here with what looked like flesh. They were driven away and an examination revealed the moustache, one jaw and a part of the neck of a man. The hogs were traced to a cave near by, from which a horrible odor came. No one dared to enter the cave, however, as it was on the ground of Hill brothers, who had forbidden any one to go near it. The smell and the disappearance of the peddlers were put together, but nothing could be made out. Yesterday afternoon Mary Smith, who was housekeeper for the Hill brothers, ran into the house of James Jones, the nearest neighbor of the Hills, and asked for protection. She was told no harm should come to her, and when she quieted down she made a horrible confession, which was, in substance, that she was forced by the Hill brothers to assist in the murder of the two peddlers. They attempted to smother them with a quilt, and the peddlers struggled so hard that Harry Hill gave her a knife and told her to cut their throats, which she did and caught their blood in a dishpan. The Hills took the bodies to a cellar where they were two days, and then they were taken away, she knew not where. The victims had about $500 on their persons.

"You will have to quit business here that orders," said Policeman Bartlett.

"Why?"

"Because the the first Lutheran Platteville church is up stairs, and after this you can't keep a saloon within 200 feet of any church, much less run a saloon in the same building."

"But, men Gott, I am the pastor of the church," answered the astonished saloon-keeper.

Major Walker's Claim.

In the House of Commons debates of the 9th of April, we have full particulars of the discussion which took place in Parliament on Walker's claim to N 1/2 of section 16, township 24, range 29, west of the 4th meridian. The discussion arose on motion of Mr. McMullen to bring down the papers in connection with the location of the above 1/2 section. It appears that Mr. Topping had squatted on this land at one time and had afterwards transferred his claim to Mr. McLeod. Hon. Mr. White, minister of the interior, did not object to the papers being brought down and the fullest information being given to the House. Mr. White went to state the facts of the case as obtained from reports of the surveyor, the inspector of homesteads and the Northwest land board.

Mr. White from his standpoint showed that the whole transaction so far as Walker's entry is concerned was wholly within the law, claiming that this would be shown to be the case when the papers are brought down. Mr. McMullen's motion for the convention—J. Wilkinson and J. Tanney.

The race to take place on or about the 8th of May. On acceptance of these terms $50 will be deposited in the Times office and the balance at a time to be mutually agreed upon. (Signed), W. H. Paine.

The Brewers Strike.

NEW YORK, April 14.—The situation in regard to the threatened lockout of the journeymen brewers in this city remains unchanged. The lockout began to-day. They expect to have no trouble in securing men to fill the places of the old hands, and have already engaged a number of men. The journeymen are hopeful, and say that the bosses cannot fill their places satisfactorily. The trouble arises from the refusal of the boss brewers to sign the obnoxious contract drawn up by their men.

CHICAGO, April 14.—The situation among the breweries this morning was very little changed. Nearly all the brewers had succeeded in hiring some new men, but none of the establishments which were stopped by the strike yesterday had resumed operations. The bosses say that the association has advertised for experienced brewers in Milwaukee, St. Louis and other places, and it was only a question of time when enough skilled hands would be secured to fill all the vacant places. At the strikers' headquarters it was claimed that about 30 men had quit this morning in addition to those who struck yesterday.

Mr. Clark, of Winnipeg, has left for Glasgow, where he will act as Canadian representative at the forthcoming exhibition to be held in the great Scotch city this summer. Winnipeg Sun: Mr. W. Stephenson, manager of the Lowe farm, who has been attending the assize court as one of the jury, returned home this morning. He says the new steam plow will be kept at work all summer, and as a result over 800 acres will be put under crop next year, and the area will be increased every succeeding season.

Winnipeg Sun: Geo. F. Galt, and others wrote to the council last night; petitioning for the extending of Rosslyn road so as to open communication from the Osborne street bridge. It was stated that 7-10 of an acre would be required, which the owners of the land were willing to grant upon reasonable terms.

Macleod Gazette: J. D. Murray narrowly escaped drowning in the Kootenai River on Sunday. He was crossing on the ice when it gave way, and his team went under. Mr. Murray went clear under the ice, but by a miracle, came up through a hole some distance below, and got out. One of the horses was drowned. The accidents are only just beginning.

North-West Review: Winnipeg citizens are having a fair example of what it means to be without street lights; on Wednesday night they floundered about in slush; and Thursday night they glided perilously over ice, but these things are nothing to what is to come. Darkness requires to have mud along with it to be fully appreciated; when the sidewalks become greasy with the slippery element, people will think that the fall of the year has come out of season.

The total number of persons who went into Manitoba and the Northwest in 1887 was 27,390, ascertained as follows:—Reported at Emerson, 7,259; Gretna, 1,345; Port Arthur, 17,926; across the frontier, west of Gretna, 960. The nationalities were as follows:—From Europe, 10,317; from Canada, 9,996; from United States, 7,077. Of the total number, 27,390, deduct those reported to have gone out via Emerson, 5,443; and Gretna, 262, making total settlers in Manitoba and Northwest, 21,685.

Brandon Times, April 12: The Eddie House had a narrow escape from being destroyed by fire on Monday night. About ten o'clock one of the boarders coming home saw flames springing up besides the wall of the kitchen several feet in height. He gave the alarm and the flames were promptly put out when it was discovered that some dry manure and refuse had been saturated with coal oil and fired. It is to be hoped the "fire bug" will be discovered and punished.

Moosomin Courier: The winter in all its severity has left us, but the whole country is covered with a thick blanket of snow. The snow has fallen this year very thickly, and in some places the drifts are most wonderfully deep, nevertheless, little or no damage to sheep or stock is reported. On the land itself the snow will be most beneficial, as it will supply an evenly distributed and much needed moisture to the soil. Last year the want of water was most severely felt in some places, but we have every reason to suppose that this year our wants will be more than supplied.

Medicine Hat, Times: The season of incubation has rolled around once more. Soon the broods of little chickens will be scratching around the kitchen door, and life will be a pleasure to endure. Mr. Gorham, locomotive foreman at swift Current, promises to emulate all comers this spring. He has rigged up a genuine homemade incubator. It consists of a keg, capable of holding twenty or twenty-five dozen eggs, which he loads to its full capacity, fastens up the head, turns the keg on its side, and then ties the hen directly over the aperture at the side, commonly known as the bug hole. He expects to work a revolution in the art of hatching eggs.

Macleod Gazette: On Friday last Mr. Pocklington, Indian agent at the Blood Reserve, met with an accident which nearly sent him to the happy hunting grounds of his red wards. He and Dave Mills were crossing at what is known as Pace's crossing of the Belly River, when one of the wheels of the wagon went through the ice, and broke to pieces. The whole outfit went through and turned over in the water on top of Mr. Pocklington, who clung to the rig. The horses turned around in the hole, and things looked pretty blue for a time. However Dave Mills finally succeeded in pulling Mr. Pockling out from his dangerous position, not very much the worse for his dangerous experience.

Emerson International: Horses to the value of $6,667 were exported from the Emerson consular district during the three months ending March 31, 1888. Of these, 30 were mares, exported from Minnedosa and Dakota for breeding purposes free of duty. The majority of the animals were purchased in Emerson, and were fine, large young mares of Clyde and Percheron breeds. A portion of the number were imported by Manitoba County farmers from Ontario, some via the C. P. R. and some in bond via the U. S. railways to Emerson, and reported out from this port.

NEW TEXT BOOKS.

The McMillan Series to be Used in our Schools.

REGINA, April 11.—The Board of Education have decided to adopt McMillan's series of copy books for our Northwest schools. The accompanying circular from Mr. Crockett, Chief Superintendent of Education, of New Brunswick, has been sent to the Education Department here and may be found interesting to the HERALD readers. "The Northwest Copy Book series" will be ready for the Territorial schools shortly. Campbell's Geography has superseded Gage's and other changes in this department I shall appraise you from time to time.

PROVINCE OF NEW BRUNSWICK, EDUCATION OFFICE, FREDERICTON, March 27th, 1888.—Messrs. J. & C. McMillan, Publishers, Saint John, N. B.—Dear Sir.—With reference to your series of copy books lately prescribed by the Board of Education for use in the public schools of this Province, I may say that the Board was pleased to make the selection from the following considerations:

1st. That the series is constructed upon principles which accord with the principles of modern elementary teaching: (1) Wholes Before Parts; (2) Analysis of Wholes; (3) Recomposition of Parts into Wholes. These principles are recognized in all our schools, and are generally practiced in the teaching of every subject. The only subject not in harmony with them was writing, until your copy books appeared. The child now approaches his writing with correct ideas from the outset. He is not called upon to imitate the form of any meaningless sign or symbol. When he comes to re-combine the elements, such as line, link or curve, etc., these elements have a meaning to him—they are parts of wholes with which he is familiar. He knows their relationship and use, and is much more likely to take an interest in forming them, and thereby led to make the letters accurate.

2nd. That the style of writing is better fitted to produce greater firmness and legibility than any other series which the board had an opportunity of examining. The writing taught heretofore taught in our schools was too small and indistinct. The letters are formed by alternate broad and fine strokes, and though in some cases it might look pretty and even ornamental, it was difficult to read. Pupils taught from your series will become plain, legible writers—qualities which must be regarded as prime importance. Yours truly,

WILLIAM CROCKETT,
Chief Sup't. Education.

Mr. James Brown, secretary of the Board, has just drafted an excellent program of studies. It comprises reading, spelling, composition, writing, arithmetic, ethics, grammar, geography, history, book-keeping, object lessons, drawing, music, calisthenics, algebra, geometry. The highest per centage (16) is allowed for reading and the lowest (2) for music. Arithmetic takes 14 and composition 10. Owing to Mr. Dewdney's absence fourteen districts await proclamation. I may say the Governor is not expected home for some time.

VERITAS.

"A SQUARE FIGHTER."

Is What Sullivan's Canadian Backer
Calls John L.

NEW YORK, April 9.—Harry Phillips and Jack Burnett arrived to-day in the Eturia from Liverpool, where they left J. L. Sullivan, who will sail thence for Boston on the 12th instant. Phillips denies the stories about Sullivan's drinking. The champion drank brandy during the fight with Mitchell and for two days after it, by order of his doctor, but none before nor since. "How about the fight?" Phillips was asked. "Well," he replied, "we couldn't win, that's about the size of it. I was disgusted. Sullivan would not fight anything but the squarest, most gentlemanly, up-and-up fight, and didn't seem to want to win unless he could do so cleanly and scientifically. The referee would not allow any claims of a foul, though Mitchell spiked Sullivan so that his shoes and stockings were torn to shreds, and his legs from his knees down looked as if they had been riddled with shot." "I should say the referee would not allow any fouls," put in Burnett, who acted as Sullivan's umpire, and whose duty it was to make a claim when a foul occurred. "Sullivan knocked Mitchell clean out in the third round and the Englishman didn't come to the scratch till 55 seconds, 35 seconds more than the rules allow, after he was carried to his corner." "Sullivan did an injury to his arm so thoroughly in the fifty round that he couldn't hit with it afterward," said Phillips in reply to a reporter's question. "How did he come to knock his man down with it then in the 14th and 15th rounds?" "A child could have done that," said Phillips. "Mitchell was altogether too slippery about going down. The merest touch and flop he would go on the muddy earth. Another thing, Sullivan was the most careful man I ever saw about falling on a man; time and again, when he could have put his whole weight on Mitchell, he even put out his hands to keep himself off the man. Sullivan is a dead game man, I think more of him than I ever did, and shall star him through the country as soon as he comes back. He never told his seconds of the injury to his arm in the fifth round. He let me know by whispering to me, 'I must not put any more money on him.' Everyone knew Sullivan was a hurricane fast fighter, but many doubted his staying qualities, which are now beyond question. I offered $2,500 even money on him two rounds before the finished, and couldn't get a taker." Phillips further said Sullivan will fight Kilrain, or any man in the world, any rules, in a 16 feet ring. He doubted if he would meet any more men with knuckles. It was brutal, and gloves were an equally good test. Phillips stayed to weeks longer in England than he meant to, trying to get another match on between Sullivan and Mitchell, or one between Sullivan and Smith. Mitchell determined never to fight again, and Smith gave as an excuse that he was under a contract with Genit's circus.

BRIDGE PARTLY DOWN.

The C. P. R. Eastbound Express Meets With an Accident.

At 11 o'clock Wednesday night, the eastbound express on the C. P. R. met with an accident at the Bow River bridge, three miles this side of Anthracite. The night was quite dark and the wind blowing at the rate of 50 miles an hour. There is a curve just west of the bridge, and the latter could not be seen until reached. The west end was all right, but the wind had blown down some of the upper timbers on the incompletely east end. The train ran half way across the bridge before it could be stopped, the engine passing clear over the bridge, partly on the new and partly on the remains of the old bridge. The tender did not get over, but fell across the stringers. A carload of manufactured silk from India to Montreal was next to the tender, whose fate it shared. There will be little damage to the silk, which is valued at $275,000. The mail, baggage and express car, which was next behind also topped about half way over, and remains in that position. The rest of the train comprising two colonists, one first class and a Pullman sleeper, was left standing on the west end of the bridge. The express from the east arrived at the scene of the accident about nine o'clock this morning, when the passengers, mail and baggage were exchanged. An engine was telegraphed for to return west with the wrecked train. Some delay was caused by the telegraph wire having been broken, giving no means of communication until the west-bound train arrived with a battery and operator on board.

The greatest praise is due engineer Lewis Patrick and his fireman, who stuck to their posts with a heroism worthy of all praise, taking the risk of what seemed certain death rather than betray the trust of human lives placed in their care. There were about 50 passengers on board.

Moosomin Courier: Mr. W. H. Hamilton, of the Lake House, was fined $50 last Saturday for being the receiver of some whiskey put up in tins, which was supposed to have contained apricots. A rather interesting case.

Glanville's Clothing House

The Calgary Herald
WEDNESDAY, APRIL 18, 1888.

The Alberta Stock Growers Association meets at Macleod on the 3rd of May.

A. E. Cross and Walter Skrien gave the Herald a pleasant call this morning.

Whibleck & Miller will open up Mark Cuzner's old restaurant about the 1st of May.

The Presbyterian Church Sunday school children will give an entertainment tomorrow night.

The High River Stock Association meet on the 30th of April to select delegates and arrange round-up business.

The chief of police captured a dog with a brass milk check attached to his collar in place of a tag to day.

A cow belonging to Major Walker was drowned yesterday while crossing the ice opposite his place.

Major Walker is suffering from the effects of a cinder in his eye which he got while watching an emery wheel at Kananskis.

Mr. R. Riddle, V. S. who for some years has been head veterinary surgeon in the N. W. M. P. has got his discharge and opened up an office here as will be seen in a card in another column. We wish him success.

Several Cattle Lost.

We regret to hear that Mrs. Capt. McIlrae lost several cattle on her ranch the other day. What the cause of their death was we do not know.

The Massey Manufacturing Co.

Have just received one car of steel skin brake wagons and buckboards made expressly for Alberta district.

Market Garden Farm.

Mr. Lindsay has rented his market garden just across the Elbow river to Mr. Thos. Cutting, one of the gardeners who worked for the doctor last year, who will run it on his own account.

Pine Creek.

Mr. Archie Bremer from Pine Creek, gave the HERALD a call on Thursday. He says that the spring work of seeding is in full swing in that settlement, which is about twelve miles south of Calgary. The farmers are feeling quite jolly this fine weather.

Seeding in Full Blast.

Word reaches us from all directions in this district that the farmers are as busy as bees getting in their seed. Although it is only the 13th of April, it is considered late seeding for Alberta and will make the farmers hop round pretty lively to get through in their usual time.

Rainfall.

The first rain of the season fell during last night. It was not very heavy nor was the ground very dry before, because of the light falls of snow we had last month, melting and keeping the ground moist enough for ploughing and seeding. However, with the warm sun of to-day, the rain last night will hasten on vegetation.

Mayor Shelton Home.

Mr. Shelton, who left here on the 15th of March as one of the Calgary delegates to Ottawa on public business, arrived home by last night's train. Court house, gaol, barracks, riding school, &c., will be due to arrive next. It is to be hoped the gas contract business will be settled within the next two months, now the full municipal board are at home. Nothing fishy now.

Fat Beef Cattle.

Messrs. Souter & York has just received another lot of fat gas fed steers to supply their palace meat market. There are 29 in this lot. They were driven in from the Stinson ranch 50 miles from Calgary, arriving at the slaughter pens yesterday. It is a pity the Belgian immigrant agent is not here to see these cattle just off the grass.

Post Office Savings Bank.

The Ottawa Government have opened a branch of the general savings bank at Calgary. This affords a good opportunity for all persons who have a little money to lay away for a wet day, where they will be getting interest for their deposits. Children over 10 years can deposit on their own account and children under that age can have their savings deposited by a trustee.

Mr. King, our obliging postmaster, will furnish all necessary information to intending depositors.

An Old Resident Gone.

Napoleon Millet, one of the oldest settlers about Calgary died at his residence just north of the town last night. He has no relatives here, and before his death willed his property to his parents, who are supposed to reside at St. Dominique, P.Q. Rev. Father Andre has been appointed executor of Millet's will.

Not Contagious.

We are glad to be able to state on authority that the disease which some cattle have had at Maple Creek is not pleurisy, as was feared by Veterinary Surgeon Creamer of Regina. The Government sent Dr. McEachern up from Montreal, who has made a careful examination and states that the disease is Anthrax or black leg, which though usually fatal is not contagious.

Sad News.

Mr. Oliver Goodman, of Calgary, has just received the sad news of the death of his mother at Grafton, Dakota, her age was 65 years. She had been in poor health for 13 years. It will be recollected that her husband, Mr. Goodman, sr., was here last fall looking up this country with a view of having Dakota Icelanders come here to settle. We are now likely to reap the benefit of that visit by having these people come here instead of going to Oregon.

The Dakota Icelandic Agent.

Mr. Joseph Maw, actuated by the deep interest he always takes in matters connected with the town and country, went out yesterday with Mr. Dibjohnson, the Dakota agent. They drove out to Sam Livingston's and other farmers. They also drove out this afternoon to Mr. Graves' and other places. This agent has expressed himself as astonished such a country could be kept hid from a world of emigrants so long. Mr. Maw took his own rig so it costs the town nothing but a debt of gratitude to Mr. Maw.

The Horse Cases.

Judgment was given this morning in the two cases tried some days since before Judge Rouleau, relative to the dispute over the Chipman ranch horses purchased last year by Campbell & Harkness and T. B. Lafferty. The first action was brought by Campbell & Harkness against Dr. Lafferty to compel him to discharge a mortgage he held on the horses, which had been given to him to secure his endorsement of a promissory note for $2,450. Campbell & Harkness deposited the amount of note and interest to maturity thereof by February 1889 in all $2,700 in the Imperial Bank. This they claimed the Dr. agreed to accept in lieu of his mortgage. After the deposit was made the Dr. took the objection that the Imperial Bank might break before February 1889, and refused to discharge his mortgage. The judge decided against the Dr. and that his excuse was not a valid one, and ordered him to discharge the mortgage and pay the costs of suit.

The other action was brought by T. B. Lafferty and Janet Lafferty against Campbell, Harkness and John Lineham, (the latter having purchased the horses) to restrain them from selling or dealing with the horses and to have a receiver appointed. The judge decided against the plaintiffs and refused the application for an injunction or receiver, and directed plaintiffs to pay the costs of the application. Lougheed & McCarthy for Campbell, Harkness and Lineham. Davis & Bleeker for the Laffertys.
